Dedication

TO

MISS DULCIE HAYES

Our teacher and our friend, whose whole-hearted interest in our school, whose interest and assistance in our activities, and whose instruction both in and out of the classroom has ever been uplifting, we the Senior Class dedicate this, the Ninth Volume of THE MOUNTAINEER.

Z 76

"When Time which steals our years away,
Shall steal our pleasures too;
The memory of the past will stay,
And half our joys renew."

We hope not only that this will serve as a golden key, which in the future may unlock the vault of the past that holds our dear, priceless memories; but that it may inspire us to press on and maintain Weaver's high ideals. Let us, therefore, pause for a moment to view our beloved campus and its many activities, our joys, pleasures, toils, and sorrows, that herein we have endeavored to set forth as they are. If this volume brings you one moment of happiness, we are repaid for our effort.

Our College Song

THE BLACK AND GOLD

The Weaver Banner flames across
The sunset's golden glow,
As darkness flings her somber shade
About the world below,
So join our hearts in glad acclaim
To Weaver true and bold;
So join our lives as one to thee,
As join the Black and Gold.

Oh! Weaver true, in years to come
We'll ne'er forget thy name;
And through the Carolina hills shall ring
Thy everlasting fame.
Then once again we'll think of thee
And give to thee our praise.
When we recall our golden youth
And happy early days.

CHORUS

Then Weaver fair, we'll sing to thee
And raise our voices high,
In praise of all we hold so dear,
Our college near the sky.

SENIORS

GRADY W. BARTLETT
SWANNANOA, N. C.

"Where there's a will, there's a way."

Clio, Secretary, '30, Chairman of Ways and Means Committee, '31; Chairman Debate Committee; Editor-in-Chief MOUNTAINEER, '31; Clio Play, '30, '31; Senior Play, '30, '31; Winner Junior Debate, '30; Chief Marshal, '30; Vice-President Y. M. C. A.; Glee Club; First Honorable Mention in Scholastic Standing.

To Grady we owe the credit for the Annual this year. Even when most of us had given up all hope he was still working. Consistency, combined with skill and pluck, make him necessarily successful in putting out an Annual. In the class-room, too, his presence is felt. We envy him his honors and his grades, but we are not jealous, because we know that he deserves them all.

BERNICE HUTCHINS
BURNSVILLE, N. C.

"Meet her, know her, and you'll never forget her."

Mnemosynean, President, '31; Art Editor, MOUNTAINEER, '31; Dramatic Club, '29, '30; Tennis Club, '30, '31.

We all enjoy being flirted with because Bernice is our class flirt. By being equally nice to everyone she has won for herself a place in our hearts which can not be shared. We all love her because she always seems jolly and carefree; still we have a feeling that hidden somewhere underneath it all she is a very serious girl, with a very artistic temperament. Some day we expect to hear much more of Bernice.

CHAS. W. MORGAN
CANTON, N. C.

"Serve all, but love only one."

Clio, Vice-President, '30, President, '31; Business Manager MOUNTAINEER, '31; Varsity Football, '30, '31; Basketball, '30, '31; College Council, '30, '31; Senior Play, '30, '31; Epworth League Cabinet, '31; Assistant in Commercial Department, '31.

We feel a twinge of sorrow when we think that this is our last year with "Charlie." While his honors mount daily, he becomes ever more cheerful and friendly. As an athlete he is unequalled; as a business man he is rarely approached—he even successfully financed this Annual. Charlie is the type that we all like and admire; the title "best all-round boy" tells only half of what we think of him.

PAULINE DAVIS
CANTON, N. C.

Euterpean, Vice-President, '30; College Council, '31; Tennis Club; Life Service Band; Home Economics Club.

Combine beauty with a friendly spirit and the result will be "Polly." No matter what happens she usually manages to have a good time, and causes others to do the same. "Polly" is usually very quiet, but we feel that when she wants to be noisy she makes a very good job of it, as she does of everything else. Those who are lucky enough to have her friendship are sure of a true and dependable friend. We shall not soon forget "Polly."

CARL CLIFTON DRUMELLER
COLORADO SPRINGS, COLORADO

So earnest in work, we know not half he's done.

Clio, Chairman of Ways and Means Committee, '30, President, '30; Football Squad, '30, '31; Debate Team, '30, '31; Debate Council, '31; Assistant Marshal, '30; Senior Play, '31; President Student Council, '30; President Senior Class, '31; Salutatorian.

Carl, having come the longest distance, endeavors to get the most possible out of our school—which explains why he is found in the midst of everything. His strength and steady dependableness make him a very successful class president and campus politician. At times his ever-present cynicism plays havoc with our pet ideals and beliefs; nevertheless, we are all willing to admit that he richly deserves the slogan, "If you want to know, ask Carl."

MARTHA VIRGINIA STYLES
ASHEVILLE, N. C.

"Charms strike the sight, but merit wins the soul."

Euterpean, Secretary, '30, President, '31; College Council, '31; Epworth League Cabinet, '30, '31; Member State Champion Debate Team, '30; Winner Junior Debate, '30; Euterpean Essay Medal, '30; Senior Play, '31.

"Jen" is almost all that we could wish for in a girl. Need we say that she is the "best all-round?" She is peppy and popular, sweet and congenial. Dramatic ability and an extraordinary intellect round out an extremely admirable girl. Her loyalty to the school and her perseverance in the many tasks assigned her leave us to wonder when she ever finds time to study. Virginia carries with her our best wishes and thorough admiration.

HOWARD GARREN
HENDERSONVILLE, N. C.

"Deeds, not words."

Clio, President, '31; Vice-President Debate Council, '31; Superintendent Sunday School, '31.

We regret that Howard did not spend both of his two years in College here. He is a dignified student, industrious, intelligent, and an all-round good fellow. His ability to make good marks in the classroom can hardly be excelled. He has made a reputation here of being more or less indifferent to members of the "Fair" sex, but we believe his "Bachelor Days" will be few. Anyway here's to his success.

ALICE EDWARDS
TRYON, N. C.

"She delights to serve those about her and make them happy."

Mnemosynean, Secretary, '31; Glee Club; Epworth League, Superintendent of Second Department.

Seen much and heard less—that's Alice. Wherever we go, on class, down town, or in the dining-hall, we are sure to be greeted by Alice's cheery smile. We like her, too, because we can always depend on her to get us plenty to eat. She is sweet, but she never overdoes her sweetness; rather, she depends upon her charming personality and cheerfulness to make and keep her many friends.

ROBERT CUNNINGHAM
WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

"A fool has no chance, therefore I will be wise."

Delphian; Basketball, '30; Football, '29, '30, All-State Junior College Guard; Senior Play, '31; Delphian Play, '30.

Need we say more about Bob's personality than that he was voted "It" of the class? When it comes to business of any kind, Bob is an authority. He knows chemistry well, and we should not overlook his ability as an athlete; in the line he is one of our mainstays. His ability to go cheerfully up against a much bigger foe will, we are sure, mean much to him in the future business world.

WINIFRED MASKE
POLKTON, N. C.

"To whom every cloud has a silver lining."

Mnemosynean, President, '30; Cheer Leader, '30, '31; Glee Club; Tennis Club; Basketball, '30.

Wherever we have a football or baseball game there is where we always find "Winnie," usually leading the cheering. We can not imagine what we should do without her. Her enthusiasm, we must add, is not confined to athletic events. Whatever she is assigned to do she enters into with such vim that she always comes out on top; consequently she is—and, we feel, will continue to be— very much in demand.

J. HARPER COX
GRANITE QUARRY, N. C.

"Girls -What foolish things they are!"

Clio, Corresponding Secretary, '30; Baseball Squad, '31; Tennis Club.

Down at the boys' dormitory Harper is known as a good fellow. If we need anything done and can't find out how to do it, Harper can usually show us how. He is in everything except trouble. Possibly the second best cook on the campus, he is always in demand. He has, also, the ability to stick with anything that comes up, especially on the scrub teams. Harper s place will be hard to fill.

IRENE BENNETT
BALD CREEK, N. C.

"Small, but big of heart and mind."

Mnemosynean, Secretary, '30; Junior Debate, '30; Home Economics Club; Senior Play, '31; Superintendent Sunday School, '31.

Irene is the superlative of all good things found in one person. With her constant devotion to the school and to the athletic teams we could not expect less. Friendly at all times, Irene's naturally cheerful disposition is aided by an everlasting desire to be kind to others. She studies, too, as her grades will easily show. It's needless to say we know she will be a success.

A. J. CLEMMER
ROCKINGHAM, N. C.

"None but himself can be his parallel."

Delphian, Vice-President, '30, '31, Chaplain, '30, '31; President Y. M. C. A., '30, '31; Ways and Means Committee, '30; Vice-President Epworth League, '31, Superintendent Department, '30; Ministerial Band, Secretary, '31; Intercollegiate Debate, '30, '31; President Debate Council; Vice-President Ministerial Band.

Here is one of our College leaders. What he is not in, usually is not worth being in. Somehow he seems to know just how to bend other peoples' wills so that they conform to his; especially is this true in the case of the faculty. He, too, is a good debater, and we know that he will make a good minister. His leadership of the "Y" and his management of the College store will long be remembered.

MARGARET MICHAEL PLEASANT GARDEN, N. C.

"A rare compound of quality, noble and true."

Mnemosynean, Vice-President, Secretary, '30; President Epworth League, '31; Cheer Leader, '30, '31; Delphian-Mnemosynean Play, '30, '31; Glee Club; Secretary-Treasurer Senior Class; Secretary Sunday School, '31; Senior Play.

The class paid Margaret a highly deserved compliment when it voted her "most popular girl." With her winning personality and constant amiability she could not be otherwise. The school always takes first place in her heart, after that she finds room for others. This year under her guidance the Epworth League has been unusually successful. Her achievements speak for themselves, and for her.

R. BARNES BLAND
HENDERSONVILLE, N. C.

"True worth is in being, not seeming."

Clio, Secretary, '31; President College Council, '31; Student Council, '31; Football Squad, '29, '30; Baseball Squad, '29.

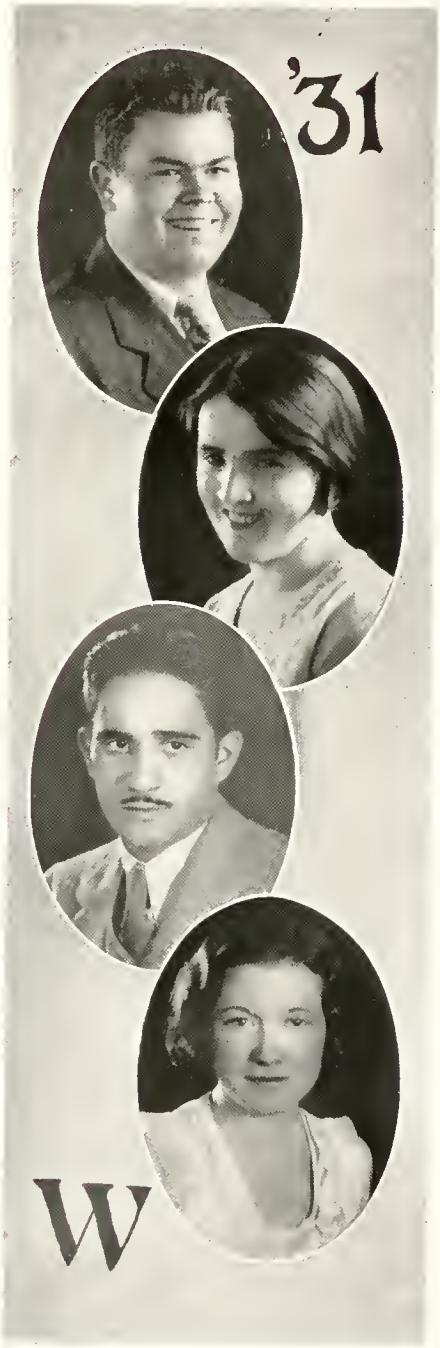
The fact that the class voted him the most friendly shows the place that "Barney" holds in our affections. He is always cheerful and friendly, frequently going out of his way to help those who need his aid. He tackles all tasks with vigor, but never seems to have a worry; consequently we feel no hesitancy in predicting for him a brilliant future in his chosen field.

KATHLEEN BURGIN
WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

"Good things come in small packages."

Euterpean; Buncombe County Club; Girls' Glee Club; Home Economics Club.

To one who is not well acquainted with her, Kathleen might seem quiet and reserved; those of us who do know her find her one of the best friends that we have. As she is a day student, we do not see as much of her as we should like, but what we do see of her leaves a lasting impression. She is just the type one would expect to be studious, and she does not disappoint this expectation.



HAMILTON YOUNG
WOODFIN, N. C.

"Fat—and a jolly good fellow."

Delphian; Football Squad, '29, '30.

Fat and jolly—that's Hamilton. His good nature is one of his crowning virtues. No matter how gloomy the situation may look, Hamilton will always see the brighter side. He does not take life too seriously—just seriously enough. Although he has quite a distance to travel every morning, he is always here and soon makes his presence known. Hamilton, we feel sure, will some day be a merchant prince.

ELIZABETH LEE
LAWNDALE, N. C.

"She never quits until a task is done."

Euterpean, Secretary-Treasurer, '30, '31; Secretary and Treasurer Sunday School, '31; President Sunday School Class; Assistant to Dean of Women; Chaplain, Euterpeans.

Elizabeth has been a straightforward, upright, earnest worker, and one who will live long in our memories. She is always ready to do anything that is for the good of Weaver. Her kind-heartedness and jocularity have endeared her to us. She manages to get along well with everyone and has a host of friends. In her, fun and seriousness are combined in just the right proportion. We appreciate her presence here at Weaver.

BERNARDINO TRAVIESO
HAVANA, CUBA

"Speech is silver, silence is golden."

Delphian; Baseball Squad, '30; Tennis Club, '30, '31; International Club.

"Cuco," as we generally call him, hails from our island neighbor, Cuba. His friendliness to all and his ready wit leaves him a friendly place in all of our hearts. "Cuco" enjoys playing tennis; if you want to find him he's usually at the tennis courts, and he usually defeats his opponents too. We know that his tact and diplomacy will win him a place in the world.

MARY BESS ZACHARY
KNOXVILLE, TENN.

"Two eyes of blue come smilin' through."

Mnemosynean Literary Society.

"Tootsie" comes to us from the "Volunteer State." She was voted our class baby, not as a joke, but because we all like babies. Her red hair and dainty neatness make her the object of admiring glances wherever she goes. In all our association with her we have always found her pleasant and agreeable. As she is the better half of the school's pet love affair we feel an indefinable interest in her future.

J. ADRIAN THOMPSON

"I am a part of all that I have met."

Delphian, Chaplain, '30; Ministerial Band; Delphian-Mnemosynean Play, '30; Student Council, '30; Assistant Librarian, '30, '31.

Adrian is strong and silent, and not as pessimistic as he would have us believe. Little need be said about his plans for the future, as he is already the pastor of a group of thriving churches. His possibilities are great, and his capacity is worthy of such. When it comes to debating, Adrian jumps right in the midst, and often comes out on top. We all admire him because we know that "still water runs deep."

FRANK HOYLE

CHERRYVILLE, N. C.

"Above all we love a steadfast friend."

Delphian, Secretary, '31; Superintendent Sunday School, '31; Basketball, '30, '31; Delphian-Mnemosynean Play, '31; Glee Club; Senior Play.

Frank stands high in the esteem, not only of his classmates, but of the whole College as well. He has been a faithful, patient member of our class and is always ready to do his part. He is always cheerful; in fact we have never seen him looking blue. Frank is a good student, a true sport, and a star tennis player. What else need we say?

WOODROW W. ROBERTS

MARSHALL, N. C.

"I meddle with no man's business but my own."

Clio, Marshal; Baseball and Basketball Squad, '30; Football, Basketball, and Baseball Squads, '31.

Woodrow is a man easy to like and is one of the most friendly persons on the campus. Not only is he always ready to lend a helping hand, but he is an all-round good fellow. Woodrow lends a hand both on the scrub basketball and baseball teams. In addition to that he finds time to make frequent trips to Mars Hill. He has no reason to be ashamed of his record at Weaver.

JOHN A. REAGAN, JR.

WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

"His ways are true, his friendship lasting."

Clio; Football, '29, '30; Clio Play; Senior Play, '31; Fellowship Group; College Council.

Another of Weaverville's worthy contributions to our class. John will always be remembered as the leader of our Fellowship. We admire him for the tenacity in his beliefs, and his willingness to explain them. John is always eager to go out of his way to assist a fellow man; consequently we know that we may predict for him a very successful medical future.

MARGARET ZIMMERMAN
WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

Mnemosynean, President, '31; Plays—"Gypsy Jim" and "Laff That Off"; College Council, Secretary, '30, '31; Basketball, '30; Secretary-Treasurer Senior Class.

Here is another of the outstanding members of our class. Margaret is a town girl; but as she lives very near the campus, we get to see much of her. Even that is not enough. Whenever we look at her we naturally think of the great out-of-doors, of tennis and golf. She has sportsmanship and intellect combined, a very desirable thing in a girl. The future holds much in store for Margaret.

RUTH ELLEN KINSLAND
WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

"Give me true friends and music, and I am happy."

Ruth Ellen is a sweet girl; we all like her. Her agreeable disposition and cheery smile both back the old saying—"Pretty is as pretty does." She is happy go-lucky with just that necessary touch of sincerity added to make her very charming. We all know that she is the prettiest girl in our class, and feel proud to point her out as such, a pride which seems to be shared by the football team. Ruth Ellen will live long in our memory.

ROY A. BURCH
CANTON, N. C.

"The man who sleeps 'till noon can not know how beautiful is the sunrise."

Delphian, Vice-President, '29, '30, Secretary, '30, Day Debate, '30; College Council, Vice-President, '30; Vice-President Senior Class, '30; Manager Baseball; Football Squad, '30; Basketball, '30.

Roy, of course, is our "campus sheik," and he richly deserves the title. We often wonder how one who finds so much time for so many different things can make good grades. When examinations come around Roy is always there ready, just as he is when anything else happens. After having fought with the "scrubs" on the football field, he managed the baseball team. His personality, like his hair, is always sunny; therefore the phrase, "Good old 'Red'."

MARGARET YOUNT
WEAVERVILLE, N. C.

Euterpean, Critic, '30, Secretary-Treasurer, '31; Assistant Librarian, '31; U. D. C. Essay Prize, '30; Valedictorian.

Wherever we see Margaret we usually see a book being studied. Her grades are ample proof of this. When we talk to her our minds wander back to the learned women of the past. In her presence we generally feel an atmosphere of sincerity and dignity, but such is not always the case. When the time comes for fun Margaret gets her share. With her ability, perseverance, and charming manner we know that she will succeed.

Dates We Can't Forget

September

11 Freshmen arrive and the Seniors give them the once over.

12 "Rats" are taught old Weaver traditions.

13 Epworth League Social; many old couples seen and new matches struck.

16 Rain? No just homesick "Rats" shedding tears.

20 Mnemosynean-Delphian Social; party takes annual pilgrimage to Jerusalem.

21 Another good man gone wrong; "Red" Burch begins chasing a "Steady."

27 Clio-Euterpean Social; Weaver students lose their dignity and become children again.

October

4 First Weaver Football game; we win, of course.

18 Weaver delegation adventures to Wingate; too bad, Wingate Team!

31 Hallowe'en; Witches, goblins, and black cats parade the campus.

November

3 "Simp" starts dating "Peruny."

8 Rutherford game hard, but we win.

12 Juniors petition for initiation!

14 Delphian-Mnemosynean Play enjoyed by a large audience.

29 Last Football game and banquet for the team.

December

2 Clemmer forgets to make an announcement in chapel.

8 Dean Duncan passes out little white slips of paper to the boys; how unusual!

12 Clio-Euterpean Play.

14 Everyone begins exited preparation for going home.

18 Homeward bound!

January

1 Judy catches a Kat.

January

3 Has everybody kissed everybody?

15-22 Prayers and Cramation.

22-28 Fears and examinations; alarm clocks become popular.

29 Students "Turn over a new leaf," and they decide to study.

February

4 Virginia Denton leaves to go home "Berrying."

18 Miss Smith tells the boys to leave early after lunch.

22 Washington's Birthday, red Hatchets, and the Junior-Senior Banquet.

24 Polly Davis begins to make progress with English.

March

5 Winnie has a sore throat, and the dormitory is much quieter.

12 Virginia Denton comes back and brings a "Berry."

20 Dave McGowan found in his room during study hour.

April

1 Girls and boys go to town together without a chaperone; boys get scared, but its all right. Mrs. Pylant arranged it. April Fool!

5 "Red" Burch kept Bartlett awake until 12:00 M. talking about his love affairs.

15 Spring again!
"In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love"—
And the girls' dorm becomes a popular "hang out."

29 Jen and George have a fuss without speaking for two whole days!

May

12 The Girls are all lonesome because the boys have gone away for a week on a baseball trip.

13 MOUNTAINEER goes to press.

14 Only 19 more days until vacation.

17 "Liz" Lee has not laughed all day.

H. R. Baker and J. S. Kendall, Coaches

Robert Leonard ..... Captain

James Howell ..... Manager

Our football season of '30 was a success, even if we did lose the last game of the season. The following are lettermen: Captain Robert Leonard, end; Porter Roberts, end; Robert Brown, end; Frank Henry, tackle; Hubert Justice, tackle; Charles Morgan, tackle and guard; Edward Whitaker, tackle; Fred Lyda, guard; Robert Cunningham, guard and center; Jack Barden, center; Hugh Pickens, quarterback; Everett Simpson, quarterback; John W. Jackson, fullback; Judy Davidson, halfback; Harry Clayton, halfback; George Flintom, halfback; William Atwell, halfback. The following men stayed with the team during sunshine and rain and deserve a great deal of credit: Roy Burch, Alfred Smith, Barnes Bland, Gordon Justus, Howard Baker, Frank Hoyle, Dewey Hinson, Bruce Guthrie, Ottis Freeman, John Reagan, and Marvin Hoyle.
